

Severe depression

Life

Astrid - Netherlands

My mother was convinced that only God could prevent my depression from being fatal. She heard the gospel and I too knew that I had to obey the Word of God. I was born again in May 2008. Since that day I have peace and certainty. I can always count on God in everything. I pray and He answers.

Life